Abbey School

for Exceptional Children

Welcome from the Principal

Welcome and thank you for your interest in Abbey School for Exceptional Children.

Our Independent day and residential school provides a unique environment of high-quality, evidence-informed education, nurture and care to young people aged 4-19 with autism whom may have additional learning difficulties and behaviours that challenge. We offer a comprehensive programme of support which ensures that all of our pupils' individual needs are met through highly personalised learning.

We are privileged to benefit from a truly wonderful location. Our school is housed in stunning Grade II* listed buildings, part of historic Abbey Square in the heart of the beautiful city of Chester. Our fantastic team of architects have designed a well-equipped and high-tech learning environment for us, whilst maintaining the beauty of the buildings and surroundings for our pupils to enjoy. We make full use of our environment and location with a creatively designed curriculum that includes focused learning and enrichment activities that support wellbeing. This enables all of our young people to experience growth, development and success.

Our highly skilled and specialist staff team includes teachers, learning and behaviour specialists, speech and language therapists and occupational therapists. This trans-disciplinary focus ensures that each pupil's individual needs are understood, accurately planned for and closely monitored as part of day-to-day school practice.

I am extremely proud to be the Principal of Abbey School, a place where pupil-centred practice is the norm and where the voice of the young people we support and their families is central to all that we do. It really is a very special place to work and learn.

Yours sincerely

Dr. Katy Lee

Abbey School

About our School

Abbey School is an Independent Day and Residential Special School for young people aged 4-19 years with autism whom may have additional learning difficulties and behaviours that challenge. We provide high-quality education and care in our beautiful Grade II* listed buildings in the heart of Chester. All young people attending Abbey School have an Education, Health and Care Plan (EHCP) with school places commissioned and funded via local authorities. Weekly, half termly or termly residential school places are available for young people who would benefit from a waking day curriculum. We work in close partnership with families and carers with support, information sharing and workshop opportunities available throughout the academic year.

Abbey School is aspirational for all of the young people that we support. This aspiration is captured in our vision, mission and values which are central to all that we do at Abbey School.

Vision

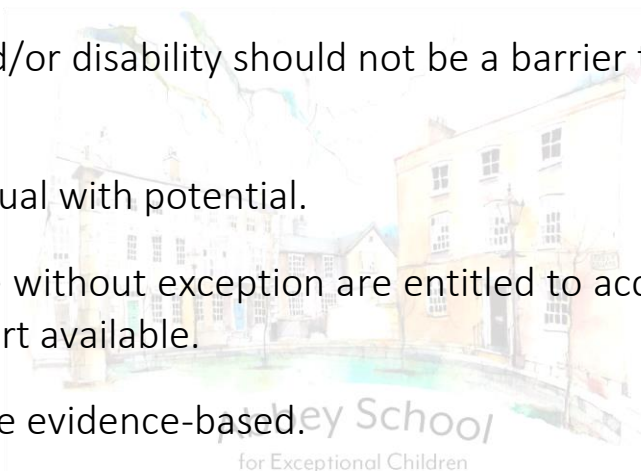

Our vision is that all children with exceptional needs receive a meaningful and fulfilling education that enables them to make their own choices about the direction of their adult lives.

Mission

Abbey School exists to provide the best education possible for young people with exceptional needs.

Values

- Special educational needs and/or disability should not be a barrier to a valued lifestyle.
- Every pupil is a unique individual with potential.
- All children and young people without exception are entitled to access the best education and support available.
- Best practices in education are evidence-based.

Abbey School

for Exceptional Children

- Teaching and learning decisions should be evidence-driven.
- Clear goals make data-based decisions more numerous and effective.
- Education is for everyone and for the whole of a person's life.
- Learning is enabling, empowering and extends the boundaries of autonomy.
- If a pupil is not learning, it is the teaching that needs to change – the learner is always right.
- The pupil voice should be heard and respected.

Every decision we make is framed in the context of the Abbey School BAGS model.

B – Belonging and connection – being part of a community and having a network of valued relationships.

A – Autonomy and control – having influence over day-to-day and life defining matters.

G – Gifts and talents – doing even better the things that are done really well, and learning to do things that are important but may not be done at all.

S – Speaking, listening and a sense of self – communicating effectively in a variety of ways, and having an identity that defines who I really want to be.

Job Description & Person Specification

Starting Salary	£38,367- £50,605 Point 31-42 Abbey School Pay Scale (Dependent on experience)	Reporting to	Lead Behaviour Analyst
Working Hours	35 hours per week	Line Manages	N/A

Role Purpose

- Work as part of a trans-disciplinary team to support the delivery of effective and appropriate teaching, learning and behaviour support in all areas of school life as a result of trans-disciplinary working underpinned by an evidence-based behavioural model of practice.
- Responsible for conducting functional assessments and developing comprehensive function based Positive Behaviour Support plans and interventions to reduce behaviour that challenges and monitoring the effectiveness of these plans through development of robust data collection systems and analysis of the data.
- Use evidence-informed practices to develop personalised learning support.
- Conducting a range of assessments including assessment for learning, assessment of learning, admissions assessments, behavioural assessments and assessments of maintenance and generalisation.
- Preparing for and contributing to Person Centred Reviews.
- Working in partnership with parents, colleagues and other professionals to achieve the best possible outcomes for children and young people.
- Play an active role in the school's approach to Positive Handling, becoming a Team-Teach Trainer (training will be provided, however the candidate is required to be open to this training) and provide training, support and advice to all staff in Abbey School to ensure any use of restrictive intervention is used in accordance with the law and clear ethical values and embedded within comprehensive proactive plans to reduce restriction.

Responsibilities and Role

Teaching and Learning

- Contribute to the planning and implementation of appropriate teaching and learning activities to achieve challenging learning objectives in all areas of the curriculum, appropriately tailored to meet the individual needs of all children or young people on your caseload. This may include contributing to the planning of individual, paired, group or whole class teaching or community-based learning.
- Ensure that robust Assessment for Learning and the Abbey School Model underpins and informs teaching and learning.
- Responsible for embedding an understanding of how people learn and the evidence-informed practices that underpin learning for the children and young people on your caseload.
- Responsible for the development and application of strategies to promote engagement and behavioural indicators of wellbeing for children and young people on your caseload.

- Responsible for developing the autonomy and voice of the young people on your caseload, to include ensuring that appropriate means of assessing pupil's autonomy, voice and choices are used.
- Regularly review learning and behaviour support interventions used to support pupils on your caseload for contextual fit, long term outcomes and to ensure that all pupils can access the curriculum including events and educational visits.
- Establish productive working relationships with children and young people, acting as a role model, and setting high expectations.
- To consistently model outstanding teaching, learning and behaviour support in own practice, which includes some direct work with your caseload.
- To contribute to the delivery of a competency-based training programme for school staff, may also be required to contribute to the development of training programmes.
- Provide advice and support to class staff via regular class observations and coaching sessions with staff.

Assessment, Target Setting and Recording Progress

- Responsible for conducting and analysing behavioural assessments, including functional assessments.
- Responsible for the planning and development of comprehensive function based Positive Behaviour Support Plans and interventions, monitoring the effectiveness of plans through development of robust data collection systems and analysis of the data.
- Responsible for assessing the physical and social environment around each young person for barriers and potential. Developing plans to remove barriers and build upon potential.
- Responsible for assessing the presence, absence and degree of maintenance and generalisation of acquired skills and setting targets in this area.
- Contribute to baseline assessments, end of term assessments and Abbey School's annual assessment cycle (including assessments for learning and assessments of learning).
- Key advisors to the classroom staff on assessment for learning and data driven decision making.
- Responsible for conducting admissions assessments and reporting to the admissions panel.
- Responsible for using information identified in admissions assessments to develop detailed transition plans and lead on the support for pupils transitioning into Abbey School.
- Maintain objective and accurate records and reports on achievement, progress and other matters, collating appropriate evidence and entering data into the school systems accurately and in a timely manner.
- Prepare for Person Centred Reviews, termly meetings and class team meetings and contribute to them to ensure that achievements are celebrated and key issues raised, discussed and actions agreed.
- Responsible for embedding measures of pupil voice into the person-centred planning process.
- Through ongoing monitoring and evaluation of pupil's progress identify where pupils are not making expected progress and take action to address this. Where concerns continue flag, work collaboratively with the Senior Teacher and Lead Behaviour Analyst to develop and implement robust action plans.
- Contribute to the development of positive handling plans (PHPs) for students who display behaviours that challenge.
- Monitor and evaluate the use of, and reduction of, restrictive interventions for students on your caseload; regularly report this information to the Lead Behaviour Analyst.

Abbey School

for Exceptional Children

- Monitor and collate data where specialist or targeted short-term support is in place (e.g. temporary 2:1 funding provided by the LA) and contribute to effective planning of how this resource will be used in order to achieve a defined objective. Contribute to reports of progression towards these objectives for the external funding bodies providing the support.

Partnership Working

- Support parents to contribute to their child's learning and progress by sharing information with them in meetings or through written communication, and by taking account of their views in planning and teaching, this may include taking part in home visits.
- Liaise effectively with other professionals, through partnership and team working through a trans-disciplinary approach to design and implement learning programmes and Positive Behaviour Support plans and interventions for individuals and to ensure a rich and varied curriculum.
- Make referrals to other professionals where appropriate in discussion with the Principal.
- Contribute to liaison and collaborative working with external agencies such as CAMHS, social services or transport.
- Represent the school at external meetings as requested by the Principal.
- Work collaboratively with the care team for residential learners on your caseload to ensure that strategies are seamlessly supportive for learners across settings. This may involve flexible working hours on occasion.
- Contribute to Abbey School's commitment to generating practice-based evidence via a programme of research collaborations.

Leadership and Management

- Play an active role in the school's approach to Positive Handling, becoming a Team-Teach Trainer (full training will be provided, however the candidate is required to be open to this training) and provide training, support and advice to all staff in Abbey School to ensure any use of restrictive intervention is used in accordance with the law and clear ethical values and embedded within comprehensive proactive plans to reduce restriction.
- To contribute to the development and delivery of a competency-based training programme for school staff.

Personal and Professional Development and School Improvement

- Commitment to developing a clear knowledge of the Abbey School Model (ASM) and the evidence-based approaches that underpin it.
- Take a full and active part in professional development activities.
- Regularly attend any relevant training and development activities both within and outside school and to attend relevant meetings.
- Be a reflective practitioner.
- Take an active part in training and other development opportunities and apply what is learnt to improve teaching and learning.
- Participate in Abbey School's Appraisal process.
- Contribute to training and development for colleagues, including supporting members of the team to complete external and internal CPD, including accredited courses.
- Contribute to reviewing and improving the curriculum.

Common Accountabilities and Dimensions within all Roles

- Demonstrate the vision and values of Abbey School in everyday practice, upholding the schools' ethos at all times.
