Welcome from the Principal

Welcome and thank you for your interest in Abbey School.

Our Independent day and residential school provides a unique environment of high-quality, evidence-informed education, nurture and care to young people aged 4-19 with autism whom may have additional learning difficulties and behaviours that challenge. We offer a comprehensive programme of support which ensures that all of our pupils' individual needs are met through highly personalised learning.

We are privileged to benefit from a truly wonderful location. Our school is housed in stunning Grade II* listed buildings, part of historic Abbey Square in the heart of the beautiful city of Chester. Our fantastic team of architects have designed a well-equipped and high-tech learning environment for us, whilst maintaining the beauty of the buildings and surroundings for our pupils to enjoy. We make full use of our environment and location with a creatively designed curriculum that includes focused learning and enrichment activities that support wellbeing. This enables all of our young people to experience growth, development and success.

Our highly skilled and specialist staff team includes teachers, learning and behaviour specialists, speech and language therapists and occupational therapists. This trans-disciplinary focus ensures that each pupil's individual needs are understood, accurately planned for and closely monitored as part of day-to-day school practice.

I am extremely proud to be the Principal of Abbey School, a place where pupil-centred practice is the norm and where the voice of the young people we support and their families is central to all that we do. It really is a very special place to work and learn.

Yours sincerely

Dr. Katy Lee

About our School

Abbey School is an Independent Day and Residential Special School for young people aged 4-19 years with autism whom may have additional learning difficulties and behaviours that challenge. We provide high-quality education and care in our beautiful Grade II* listed buildings in the heart of Chester. All young people attending Abbey School have an Education, Health and Care Plan (EHCP) with school places commissioned and funded via local authorities. Weekly, half termly or termly residential school places are available for young people who would benefit from a waking day curriculum. We work in close partnership with families and carers with support, information sharing and workshop opportunities available throughout the academic year.

Abbey School is aspirational for all of the young people that we support. This aspiration is captured in our vision, mission and values which are central to all that we do at Abbey School.

Vision

Our vision is that all children with exceptional needs receive a meaningful and fulfilling education that enables them to make their own choices about the direction of their adult lives.

Mission

Abbey School exists to provide the best education possible for young people with exceptional needs.

Values

- Special educational needs and/or disability should not be a barrier to a valued lifestyle.
- Every pupil is a unique individual with potential.
- All children and young people without exception are entitled to access the best education and support available.
- Best practices in education are evidence-based.
 - Teaching and learning decisions should be evidence-driven.
 - Clear goals make data-based decisions more numerous and effective.
 - Education is for everyone and for the whole of a person's life.
 - Learning is enabling, empowering and extends the boundaries of autonomy.
 - If a pupil is not learning, it is the teaching that needs to change – the learner is always right.
 - The pupil voice should be heard and respected.

Every decision we make is framed in the context of the Abbey School BAGS model.

B – Belonging and connection – being part of a community and having a network of valued relationships.

A – Autonomy and control – having influence over day-to-day and life defining matters.

G – Gifts and talents – doing even better the things that are done really well, and learning to do things that are important but may not be done at all.

S – Speaking, listening and a sense of self – communicating effectively in a variety of ways not just speech, and having an identity that defines who I really want to be.

Role Purpose

Children and young people are supported by a highly skilled and well qualified team of residential care staff with relevant social care qualifications. The team comprises a home manager, Deputy Manager, Team Leaders, Senior Residential Support Workers, Residential Support Workers and Waking Night Staff. All our young people are one to one supported. This high ratio of residential staff facilitates the bespoke work we do to support the complex needs. The residential care teamwork in close partnership throughout the academic year with school staff and with families to ensure our pupils can enjoy a safe and nurturing environment. The role of Residential Support Worker would be to fully support the daily needs of our young people to deliver the highest quality of care to those who reside in the residential setting.

Applicants must be at least 21 years of age due to the age range of our pupils being supported.

Responsibilities and Role

The main focus is to create a safe, caring and nurturing environment for resident young people which promotes the school's focus on enhancing Quality of Life through the Abbey School BAGS model (Belonging and connection, Autonomy and control, Gifts and talents, Speaking listening and sense of self). You will lead the residential staff team to have a specific focus on preparing young people for adult life and will work closely with parents and families to ensure that each young person's support needs are fully met. As a residential support worker, you will play a role in the establishment, maintenance and development of the environment and climate of the Home, thus providing young people with a calm and relaxed living experience.

Our aim is to give our young people the best quality of life experiences and support them to be emotionally secure, happy and positive outcomes.

During your induction you will become fully conversant with the Abbey School/ Abbey Green common philosophy and policies. It is vital to respect and maintain the confidential nature of the work. Residential Support Workers will actively be involved in planning and participating in the homes recreational and social program and engage individuals.

The role of residential support worker offers a shift pattern to allow staff to create a work life balance. The shift pattern includes a combination of early, late, or long days. To meet the needs of the business residential support workers are required to work a period of waking night shifts.

Promotion of Good Child Care Practice

It is vital that our young people receive an outstanding level of care, ensuring that Safeguarding is 'Outstanding' within the residential provision. You will be involved in the day-to-day supervision of children and young people regarding standards of care in line with the National Minimum Care Standards for Residential Special Schools and the wider implications of guidelines, procedures, instructions and policies, e.g. health care, children's rights, childcare law, etc.

Being part of the residential team requires that you demonstrate good child practices in own direct work with children. You will be responsible for compiling reports, supporting tracking behaviour and liaise as key worker with the therapy department including Speech and Language and Occupational therapy. You will need to establish good relationships with young people based on confidence, trust, understanding and mutual respect, You will also need to have good English skills and be able to compile written reports as and when necessary.

A key part of your role will be to actively seek the views and opinions of children and provide a platform for pupil voice in line with their preferred method of communication. Ensure that all pupils engage and make progress through a personalised extended curriculum. Ensuring that you work holistically with education staff, parents and families to plan, practice and collect evidence of progress within the 24-hour extended curriculum. You will be responsible for the safe supervision of young people by exercising adequate control. Maintaining the agreed staffing ratios at all times.

Administrative Tasks

- To track and record the young people's progress and development in line with procedures.
- To contribute towards reports
- To complete young person's case notes on a daily basis, before the end of the shift and in line policy.

Partnership Working

- Be involved with residential special schools locally and nationally, both to observe good practice and use evidence-based work to best inform childcare practice.
- Form working partnerships with community facilities to promote an active and stimulating residential timetable

Professional development

- Commitment to developing a clear knowledge of the Abbey School Model (ASM) and the evidence-based approaches that underpin it.
- To take a full and active part in professional development activities.
- To be responsible for identifying your own areas of training needs in partnership with the leadership team
- To participate in the Abbey School staff development program
